Assignment: Exploratory Presentation on Advanced Graphics Topics

Objective

You are required to create a presentation of approximately 10 frames on an advanced topic in computer graphics that has not been covered in class. This assignment is designed to broaden your understanding of real-world techniques, cutting-edge research, and industry practices in modern computer graphics.

Instructions and Guidelines

1. There are 50 topics to choose from. The full list is available on the topic selection sheet.
2. Each topic may be assigned to at most 3 students. This can be:
 - Three individuals working independently on the same topic
 - A group of two and one individual
 - A group of three
3. If working in a group, all members must contribute equally. Group size cannot exceed 3.
4. Your presentation must include:
 - Clear and concise explanation of the topic
 - Diagrams, examples, and visuals wherever appropriate
5. Recommended Tools:
 - Use Beamer with the LaTeX preamble provided for course slides
 - You may use this Overleaf project to get started
 - Use TikZ for diagrams when applicable
6. You must record a video presentation (max duration: 10 minutes) where all members present equally.
7. Submit the following files:
 - Beamer .tex (or other) source files and images
 - Exported PDF or PPTX of your slides
 - A video file of the presentation (MP4, MKV, etc.)
8. All materials must be uploaded to this Google Drive folder:
 - Create a subfolder titled with your group name (or your student ID if individual) and place all files there
 - Submit a link to your folder in a text file in moodle
9. Topic selection:
 - Visit the Google Sheet
 - Write your group name or student ID beside the topic you are choosing in the “Topic Sheet”
 - If you are in a group, also list group members and their student IDs in the “Groups” sheet
 - The sheet is publicly editable. Manage it among yourselves. The final sheet will be treated as the authoritative record. No further mediation will be done.
10. Bonus Opportunity: Submit reviews of three presentations on distinct topics (excluding your own) for up to +5 bonus marks.
 - Reviews must be short (< 500 words), honest, and constructive.
 - Reviews must be written in your own words and submitted in the “Review” sheet in the spreadsheet.
 - Flattering, superficial, or generative AI-based reviews will receive a penalty of -10 marks.
 - You must submit your own presentation to be eligible to submit reviews.
11. Failure to follow instructions will result in 0 marks.
12. Deadline: 31 July 2025.
